

Public Health and Social Measures linked to vaccination status Direction

This direction is not yet in effect

This direction will be in effect from 5am AEST Friday 17 December 2021.

Until then, see Restrictions on Businesses, Activities and Undertakings Direction \(No. 29\) that is in effect until then.

Schedule 1B - Unvaccinated persons may enter - other requirements apply to venue

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4
Business, activity, undertaking	Contact information, COVID safe checklist and other requirements	Fully vaccinated visitors or staff, or those with evidence of a medical contraindication – entry requirements	Unvaccinated persons – entry requirements
Indoor sports centres and venues, indoor social sporting based activities, community sports clubs, indoor swimming pools open to the public.	Contact information must be collected in accordance with Part 3. Operate in accordance with the COVID Safe Checklist	Permitted Sport in indoor spaces - occupant density limit applies – no more than 1 person per 2 square metres No occupant density requirement on the field of play or in the pool. Physical distancing to be observed out of the pool. Indoor occupant density requirements apply to shared change rooms. Example – spectators watching an indoor basketball game must observe physical distancing to the extent possible. Participants, coaches, officials and other support functions (trainers, medical staff etc) are not required to observe the person per square metre occupant density rule on the field. Example – spectators and coaches at a water polo game must observe physical distancing to the extent possible. Players are not required to observe the person per square metre occupant density rule in the pool.	Permitted Sport in indoor spaces - occupant density limit applies – no more than 1 person per 2 square metres No occupant density requirement on the field of play Example – spectators watching an indoor basketball game must observe physical distancing to the extent possible. Participants, coaches, officials and other support functions (trainers, medical staff etc) are not required to observe the person per square metre occupant density rule on the field.