OFFICIALS

GENERAL RULES

- Skaters must be in the building and dressed for their class/lesson at least 10 minutes prior to the commencement time.
- All skaters are to dress as per official training day regulations in full skating attire (See 2023 World Skate Rules for Solo Dance). No singlets or t-shirts for females permitted. Male skaters are to wear either a leotard or plain t-shirt (tucked in – no logos) with skating pants.
- Skaters may wear Active wear for the Beep Test/Fitness Class only (Please note, there is not a lot of change over time between classes, this should be taken into account if choosing to wear active wear). Skaters must have proper running/cross training shoes.
- There is no on-skate warm up time for any class.
- Parents and non paying spectators are to remain in the snack bar area at ALL times.
- Coaches who have registered for the seminar are welcome at all classes.
- Officials who have registered for the seminar are welcome at all classes.
- Only coaches can photograph or video their own skaters during any classes.
- Coaches may video skaters who are demonstrating for their own educational purposes in general classes however the video may NOT be posted to any open social media platform.
- Skaters may be videoed by event organisers or the Australian Technology committee for use in judging or educating officials.
- Skaters must remove their skates when leaving the court area – no skating is allowed in foyer, hall or toilet areas.

PLEASE BRING THE FOLLOWING FOR YOUR CLASS:

- All skaters must bring water, a hand towel and have available appropriate footwear (i.e. trainers/runners) if needed. Water or drink bottles are NOT to be placed directly on the skating surface.
- All skaters must bring a note pad and pen.
- Stretch band (if you have one)
- Spinner (if you have one)
- Old sock
